

Partners in Recovery: The Effective Use of Peers and Addictions Counselors in Helping Clients Recover

*Presenter
Mark Sanders, LCSW, CADC*

Richard Pryor

U.S. Prison Population

1985	-	500,000 inmates
1995	-	1 million
2005	-	2 million
Today	-	2.5 million

Partners in Recovery: The Effective Use of Peers and Addictions Counselors in Helping Clients Recover

Presenter
Mark Sanders, LCSW, CADC

- Addictive Relationships*
- Lots of drama*
 - Smothering*
 - Extreme jealous*
 - Abuse*

Partners in Recovery: The Effective Use of Peers and Addictions Counselors in Helping Clients Recover

Presenter
Mark Sanders, LCSW, CADC

Discussion

- 1. Which 3 styles of recovery are easiest for you to embrace?*
- 2. Which 3 styles of recovery are the most difficult for you to embrace*

Partners in Recovery: The Effective Use of Peers and Addictions Counselors in Helping Clients Recover

Presenter
Mark Sanders, LCSW, CADC
